IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT HIRE OF SHIRE FACILITIES
In the interest of law, order and public safety, the Shire reserves the right to refuse hire of any of its facilities for any purpose.
Please ensure you have contacted the Shire of Wiluna to ensure you are familiar with and understand all information including your responsibilities as a hirer. A hirers manual will be available from the Shire which outlines all necessary information that hirers need to know.
All events with alcohol must have local police approval before hire is approved by the Shire, and a copy of applicable liquor license (in the event alcohol must be sold) must be presented to the Shire before hire is approved.

Shire of Wiluna

2020-2021 Fees and Charges

Description	2020-2021	GST Status	Comments
The Shire reserves the right to make the decision about the purposes for which the facility is hired, and the right to request further information prior to making a decision to allow the booking.
A bond is always required as per the prescribed fees and charges. No exceptions.
All fees and charges are adopted by the Council. Shire Officers are not able to waive, discount , exempt, write-off or amend any of the applicable fees and charges. Only Council can approve these BEFORE hire takes place.
Daily hire is considered to be hire of 8 hours or more to a maximum of 24 hours after which the new day commences. Hourly hire is from 1 to 8 hours hire in duration.
Hire commences from when keys are collected until when keys are returned NOT from when event commences or finishes.
Equipment available in hire venues is stated in the hire fees and charges. The Shire does not have any other equipment available for hire or use. Potential hirers need to consider their own requirements such as projectors, whiteboards, crockery, catering etc.
FACILITY BOOKINGS MUST BE MADE AT LEAST 5 (FIVE) DAYS PRIOR TO EVENT. BOOKINGS WILL NOT BE APPROVED WITHIN 5 DAYS OF EVENT
