LEGAL REPRESENTATION COUNCILLORS & EMPLOYEES

Policy 2.17

Members of Council or employees of the Shire from time to time may require legal services in connection with any matter impacting on their conduct or the performance of their functions as members or employees.

Questions may arise from time to time as to whether, and the extent to which, the Shire should provide financial assistance to secure legal services, and this Policy is intended to facilitate decision-making on those questions.

As a general rule, financial assistance will only be provided to a member or employee for a matter which arises out of or in the course of their conduct, or the performance of their functions, as members or employees.

It is intended that financial assistance will not be provided to a member or employee who has acted unlawfully, dishonestly, improperly, or otherwise in bad faith.

Generally, financial assistance may be provided to former members or employees or may continue to be provided for members or employees after they cease their membership or employment, where that can manifestly be seen to be justified by the interest of good government of the district.

The level of financial assistance provided is to be assessed in all cases against an evaluation of the extent to which it is justified in the interest of the good government of the district.
